

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXXIV.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JANUARY 18, 1907.

NO. 87.

Bobbitt's Jottings.

STANFORD, KY., Jan 12.
Being stranded in this lovely city for a few days and having read much law and gospel to-day and having enjoyed a long, matutinal perambulation far out into the beautiful woodlands of the invalid sister of my lamented friend, A. M. Swope, I will write a few lines for the INTERIOR JOURNAL for my far distant and absent friends, one of whom recently resided in Crab Orchard and whose graceful, willowy motion caused me to bestow upon her the "Zephyr Wave" years ago. The sister of my much admired friend is in delicate health but well-remembered the devoted friend of her handsome and gifted brother. Her residence is palatial, her farm is one of the richest in Lincoln county. Grand groves of noble and majestic oaks centuries old, tower high over unplowed virgin soil, worth $150 an acre. Everything was visible here but the greatest boon that can be possessed on earth—good health. With emotions of poignant grief I took the thin, wasted hand, while a tide of sadness rolled through my heart as I thought of her venerable father, her eloquent and ill-fated brother, and the associations with the family in the long ago. The elements seemed to be in sympathy with the surroundings. Huge, gray masses of stormy clouds were chasing each other in storm squadrons athwart the gloomy sky and now and then a copious shower of tears fell upon the dead leaves of the past.

The called term of the Lincoln circuit court is dragging its length along and now and then grinding out a turn of $2,000 against the L. & N. and in some cases the litigants don't get the sack back.

The noble old Swiss is at home again on the "Sweet River Rhine." About two weeks ago while going across the fields from his house to Maywood I lost my French testament with my name written on the fly leaf and the whole page written in French in my hand writing. The finder would be heartily thanked and liberally rewarded by returning it to me.

Well, this is 1907, and as Washington said to his Revolutionary officers: "May your future be as happy and prosperous as your past has been honorable and glorious!"

In this morning's ramble I was accompanied by Mr. Mart Moore, of Williamsburg, who had a flock of sheep and a herd of cattle on the farm. Mr. Moore sold his sheep and cattle at a handsome profit, subscribed for the INTERIOR JOURNAL and will be back again to buy a farm in the county where such noble men and lovely women grow and such a paper is published.

FOUNTAIN FOX BOBBITT.

The Grip.

"Before we can sympathize with others, we must have suffered ourselves." No one can realize the suffering attendant upon an attack of the grip, unless he has had the actual experience. There is probably no disease that causes so much physical and mental agony, or which so successfully defies medical aid. All danger from the grip, however, may be avoided by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy not one case has ever been reported that has resulted in pneumonia or that has not recovered. For sale by the Stanford Drug Co.

When you begin to think that you are the only real thing that ever happened, just cut this out and paste it in your hat: Man is a funny cuss and hasn't long to stay, he flies around and makes a fuss and then hies away. Some men imagine that they are great and try to tear up jack, but each one meets the same old fate, trots the same old track. Great Caesar is dead and turned to clay, so is Cicero and Alexander's gone the way the rest of us must go. The sages, heroes, poets, all the men of wealth and worth, in an open grave must fall and crumble back to earth.

A Jamaican Lady Speaks Highly of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mrs. Michael Hart, wife of the superintendent of Cart Service, at Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies Islands, says that she has for some years used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, croup and whooping cough and has found it very beneficial. She has implicit confidence in it and would not be without a bottle of it in her home. Sold by the Stanford Drug Co.

When it rains
We all get wet;
When it shines
We all forget.

If it rains
Or if it shine,
Let's all keep
A feeling fine.

MATRIMONIAL.

Having explored far off and in unhappy Russia, traveled in Japan and China, visited India, the Philippines and most of the civilized world, R. L. Warner, of Stanford, Ky., declared to-day that he never met a girl whom he cared to marry until he reached Anderson.

After many years of roving, adventurous life, which took him into foreign countries and islands of the sea, Mr. Warner settled down at Stanford, Ky., where he is engaged in the mercantile business. It was just 26 days ago that he came to Anderson to visit his sister, Mrs. J. W. Perrin, and it was here that the young traveler met his fate. Cupid led him a willing captive and already the aroma of orange blossoms fill the air. It was the pretty face and the winning ways of Miss Jaunita Musser that captivated the Kentucky man. Miss Musser resides at No. 2088 Columbus avenue and is employed at Duffield's millinery store. Her charms are well known to her friends here, but to the Bluegrass merchant they were irresistible. It was a general case of love at first sight and a complete surrender followed. Although the courtship was brief it was an ardent one, for Mr. Warner has a record of having within the 26 days he has been in Anderson, called on the pretty milliner 78 times. That is going some, but it was not time lost, for today the announcement of the wedding is made.

Cupid's conquest brief, but exciting, will be completed at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, when the marriage of Mr. Warner and Miss Musser will be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Musser, No. 2208 Columbus avenue. Dr. C. C. Cissell, pastor of the First Methodist church, will be the officiating minister and the wedding will be attended by only the immediate friends of the contracting parties. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal couple will leave on a three weeks' trip through the South.

Before locating at Stanford, Mr. Warner was clerk in the Alexandria Hotel, the fashionable hostelry in Honolulu.—Anderson, Ind., Daily Journal.

OTTENHEIM.

The firm of White & Davis has dissolved partnership. W. T. White will run a store at Ottenheim, while F. L. Davis will continue to run a store at the old stand at Davis' blacksmith shop.

At present we have three men keeping bachelor's hall and if anyone knows of three ladies who would love, honor, cherish and obey these men, they will confer a favor on them by addressing them at this place.

Wm. Anderson has a sow that is eight years old and which has raised 128 pigs. He has sold $500 worth from her, besides killing enough meat every year for a family of nine. We defy any man to beat this without lying.

Leslie Anderson has gone to Richmond to school. As he is an accomplished, self-made young man, we wish him great success. Mrs. Lizzie Martin and children, of Martinsville, Ind., are visiting relatives in this section.

Cured of Lung Trouble.

"It is now 11 years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at Penny's Drug Store. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Newspaper men no longer enjoy the privilege of riding on railroads free, but like Johnnie Rockefeller and other millionaires will pay as they go, which will probably be semi-annually. Generally speaking, the editor is under obligations to no man or set of men, and if he can't ride, he can walk out and take a survey of nature.—Jessamine Journal.

A Card.

This is to certify that all druggists are authorized to refund your money if Foley's Honey and Tar fails to cure your cough or cold. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. Cures la grippe coughs and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Contains no opiates. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. G. L. Penny.

"How old is Helen?" we asked our little niece.

"I don't know," the child answered. "She must be pretty old, though, for she blows her own nose."

The pure food law is said to have largely increased the demand for pure whisky and prices have gone up materially.

NEWS NOTES.

Lebanon will vote on the whisky question March 25.

Ollie Dyer, who is said to have introduced stenography into this country and was the first shorthand reporter in the United States Senate, is dead in Boston.

George S. Work, who was sent to prison for wrecking the Bank of America and the American Life Insurance Company 16 years ago, is dead at Philadelphia.

George H. Moreland, a farmer, living near Trumbull Center, O., suddenly became insane and killed his two sons, aged seven and nine, by slashing their throats with a razor.

Three acres of land on a farm in Carter county sank and slid 30 feet, opening up many fissures in the earth, one of them 50 feet deep. Deep fissures were opened in county roads.

Mrs. Sallie Amburgy, a wealthy widow, residing in the edge of Knott county, was found dead in a woodland back of her home. Her death is a mystery, since the body shows no signs of violence.

The Burley tobacco growers filed articles of incorporation at Winchester. No capital stock is issued and the indebtedness is limited to $250,000. The purpose of the society is to increase the price of tobacco.

W. S. Oliver, of Knoxville, and Anson Bangs, of New York, whose Panama bid promises to be successful, declare they have no fixed plans for the work, but if they get the contract they will just go ahead and dig.

The grand jury at Findlay, O., reported, returning 939 indictments against the Standard Oil Company, six subsidiary companies and John D. Rockefeller, H. H. Rogers and seven other officials of the alleged trust.

The appellate court denied a rehearing in the cases of Guy Lyon and W. R. Fletcher, convicted of criminal assault in Logan county and sentenced to death. Gov. Beckham immediately fixed the date of execution for Feb. 15.

Later reports from the earthquake disaster at Kingston, Jamaica, indicate that the situation is decidedly more serious than was indicated by the meager dispatches sent out on Tuesday. The estimates of dead are now in the neighborhood of 1,000.

A petition signed by County Judge Taulbee, County Attorney Hagins and more than a hundred citizens of Breathitt county asking for the removal of Judge Carnes and the revoking of his commission was mailed from Jackson to Gov. Beckham.

In the course of proceedings at Philadelphia the charge was made, substantiated by a letter from the dead man, that Congressman Robert Adams, Jr., who killed himself at Washington last year, was a defaulter to the extent of $70,000, having taken from a safety deposit box bonds belonging to his father's estate and to his brother.

The snowfall in the Northwest is heavier than ever before. The Great Northern and other railroads are struggling against drifts 20 and 30 feet deep and trains are days behind time. Part of the Soo line has been abandoned, and the Canadian Pacific, in Western Canada, has suspended operations. The weather is severely cold, ranging anywhere from 33 to 55 degrees below zero.

With the tributaries of the Ohio pouring floods into it at all points south of Pittsburgh, and the danger line reached in many places, it is predicted that the river will equal the flood of 1884. The Ohio passed the danger line at Cincinnati, flooding the Grand Central station, the use of which has been discontinued. Rivers and creeks in Kentucky are all raging and great damage has been done.

James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railroad Company, has written a letter to Gov. Johnson, of Minnesota, in which he deals exhaustively with the various phases of the railroad problem. Mr. Hill sets out at length what, in his opinion, is responsible for the existing situation and what should be done to remedy it. The Western country has grown so fast that the railroads have been unable to keep pace with it. Mr. Hill says, and he believes the building of additional trackage is the best solution of the problem.

Dangers of a Cold and How to Avoid Them.

More fatalities have their origin in or result from a cold than from any other cause. This fact alone should make people more careful as there is no danger whatever from a cold when it is properly treated in the beginning. For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been recognized as the most prompt and effectual medicine in use for this disease. It acts on nature's plan, loosens the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions, and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Sold by the Stanford Drug Co.

PREACHERSVILLE.

Can the oldest inhabitant recall any weather that equals that which we are having at present?

Mrs. D. M. Anderson is complaining. Both Dr. and Mrs. Farris are ill. J. D. Horton has tonsillitis.

Finley Ballard has the best pack of hounds in the county. They "raised" a fox and after some hour's chase caught Reynard just as he was going into his den. Three cheers for Ballard and his dogs.

Rev. Palmer, pastor of the Methodist church, preached Sunday to small audiences. Rev. H. M. Shouse will begin a protracted meeting at the Baptist church Sunday next. Both Sunday schools have failed to have any services at all this winter.

For the first time in a score of years our merchants ran out of kerosene and for a few nights our city was in darkness, our gas works being out of order. It is safe to say that the darkness was felt as well as seen, as some of our residents had to resort to tallow dip of yesteryear.

J. M. Cress bought 30 high grade yearlings from D. M. Anderson at $25 and sold some butcher stuff to S. G. Anderson at 34c; also 50 fat hogs to Sweeney Morgan at $5.80. J. R. Riggs bought of Dr. Farris his home here for $500. W. F. Parks has moved to the place he purchased of Levi Sowders for $400. Mr. Parks is a blacksmith and is also running a grist mill. E. R. Holtzclaw sold some hay at 60c baled.

Tilden Farris is at home from West Baden, Ind. Mrs. Ona Naylor and Miss Kate Payne visited the family of J. F. Payne. J. T. Bingaman, of Oklahoma, was with his friend, W. P. White. Tim Naylor has gone to railroad, much to the regret of his parents. Miss Lillie Edmiston, of Louisville, was with the Misses Cummins. R. G. Pettus, B. T. Lunsford and J. P. Rogers will go on a prospecting tour of Texas and Oklahoma. I. J. Holtzclaw will take a course in Smith's Business College soon.

The remains of Oliver M. Naylor were laid to rest in the Preachersville cemetery Tuesday afternoon after services at his late residence by Mr. Beazley, of Stanford. Deceased was 30 years old and had been sick for nine weeks and was thought to be getting well when he committed the rash act that resulted in his death the following day. While he was not a church member he was as good as some in the church, being an honest, upright, truthful young man. After talking with Rev. H. M. Shouse, who visited his bedside, he said he would trust in the Savior and rely on His promises. He is survived by his parents, five brothers and five sisters. May his sad taking away be the means of drawing his family to a closer walk with Jesus.

Wise Counsel From the South.

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. R. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles, I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at Penny's Drug Store. Price 50c.

For a brave defense of a prisoner, which later caused his defeat at the polls, J. L. Merrill, custodian of the Federal prison at Atlanta, has received an advance in salary of $300 a year. Merrill is the former sheriff of Carroll county, Ga., who defended a prisoner from death in 1901 at the hands of a mob. The present raise in salary comes as an evidence of the interest President Roosevelt has taken in the case.

An Insidious Danger.

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first sign of trouble as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes. G. L. Penny.

Otho Willis, of New Castle, was caught in Owenton with 115 pints of liquor packed in a trunk in his possession. He was arrested previous to making a single sale, tried under the new law and fined $75 and 25 days in jail.

Disturbed the Congregation.

The person who disturbed the congregation last Sunday by continually coughing is requested to buy a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. G. L. Penny.

"Lushly kept his glass upside down most of the time at the banquet the other night."

"Yes, and with the lower end of it in his face."

Joe Neal died at Middlesboro of lockjaw, caused by sticking a nail in his foot.

MRS. ELLA HUTCHESON ELWANGER, society editor of the Frankfort Journal, tells "the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth" in the following paragraph: "Editing a newspaper is a nice thing. If we publish jokes, people say we are rattlebrained. If we don't we are fossils. If we publish original matter they say we don't give them enough selections. If we give them selections, they say we are too lazy to write. If we don't go to church, we are heathens. If we do go we are hypocrites. If we remain at the office, we ought to be out looking for news items. If we go out, we should be in attending to our business. If we wear old clothes—they laugh at us. If we wear good ones, they say we have a pull. Now what are we to do?" In answer to her question, "Now what are we to do?" we suggest that Mrs. Elwanger take the motto we chose some seven years ago when we assumed control of the INTERIOR JOURNAL: Do right, the opinion of the public be dog-goned.

GEORGIA, which hires out her convicts among 13 firms, got $88,153.58 out of them during last year. After deducting sufficient to pay the expenses of the convict system, the balance, about $50,000, will be distributed among the various counties of the state, for public schools and public roads.

THE American Society of Equity does not propose to stop at tobacco. It will endeavor also to make other products of the soil bring their value. Down in Southern Indiana it is getting the farmers to agree to hold their wheat for $1 a bushel, and is meeting with great success.

AN effort is being made in Congress to close all postoffices on Sunday with opening hour on that day. The member who introduced the measure and those who voted for it should be given a back seat by their constituency. Such statesmen (?) rightfully belong to the darker ages.

THE far-sighted man of the Louisville Post tries Senator McCreary for a good Federal berth after his term of office expires in March, 1909. We hope the Senator will not consider any gift from the republican party, which he has fought so gallantly for these long years.

TEVIS WILKINSON, candidate for mayor of Lexington, shouldn't mix his politics with religion. He is using the Upper Street Baptist church for his headquarters, which alone may defeat him.

POLITICAL.

It is likely that Mark Anderson, of Junction City, will run for the democratic nomination for Representative of Boyle.

It is thought that there will be a liberal appropriation for Kentucky waterways in the coming Rivers and Harbors Bill.

After an all-day fight, a substitute Ship Subsidy Bill was reported favorably to the House by the Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries.

A bill designed to facilitate the rebuilding of San Francisco has been introduced in Congress, repealing for five years the duty on structural steel.

Representative Sheppard, of Texas, aroused the enthusiasm of the democrats in the House by a speech in which he scored the stand-pat policy of the republicans.

The New York District Attorney's office alleges that it has uncovered a plot by which 11 Aldermen were asked to sell their votes for Recorder. Two arrests were made.

A bill has been introduced in the Indiana Legislature to curtail the power of the governor by taking away from him the power of appointment of the police boards in certain cities.

Congressman Swager Shirley has declined appointment on the judiciary committee, believing that his appointment was a blow aimed at John Sharp Williams, the minority leader, and is receiving commendation from the democrats in the House.

The House passed the Fortifications Appropriation Bill. No amendment of any kind or nature was made changing any of the amounts carried in the budget. The measure carries $5,411,883.

At the investigation of the Baltimore and Ohio block signal system by the Interstate Commerce Commission the testimony showed that employees often worked an excessive number of hours without rest.

A bill providing that judges and public prosecutors shall not accept passes, under severe penalties, and providing an allowance for their traveling expenses, was introduced in the Tennessee upper house.

A resolution for the appointment of a committee of five members to investigate the indebtedness of the Illinois Central to the State and the legality of the election of J. T. Harahan to the presidency of that road was introduced in the Senate of the Illinois Legislature.

Representative R. W. McKinlay, of Cook county, Ill., introduced a bill prohibiting any State official from accepting any pass or telegraph frank, and prohibiting railroad and telegraph corporations from issuing the same, and adding a penalty of from six months to a year in jail for violation.

The President sent to the Senate a special message on the Brownsville affair, in which he calls the discharged soldiers "midnight assassins" and reaffirms his authority to discharge them from the army. He also transmits Secretary Taft's report containing the evidence taken at the investigation.

Sale of Valuable Farm and Personality.

As administrator of John A. Wright will sell

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 30, 1897.

at his late residence, one mile from Hustonville, on Danville pike, in Lincoln county, Ky., sell at public outcry his personal property, all of which is exceptionally good and consists mainly of the following: One aged stallion, 1 three-year-old stallion, 7 brood mares, two 2-year-old fillies, three yearling fillies, 1 yearling colt, three yearling colts, all well bred, one pair of work mules, 74 sheep, 40 hogs (sows, pigs and boars), 27 yearling cattle, 5 milk cows, 1 three-year-old cow, 10 head of calves, 1000 bushels of corn, 112 bushels of rye, 1000 tobacco stalks, farming implements and tools of all kinds and varieties in good condition, household and kitchen furniture, pair of stock scales, pair of movable Howe scales, 30 rods of wire fence and fencing apparatus, 4 beams, wagon, gears, harness, saddle, combination gun, two Winchester rifles, etc.

At the same time and place as the agent of the heirs of John A. Wright, I will offer for sale at public outcry the farm of about one hundred and eighty-seven acres, lying immediately on the Danville & Hustonville turnpike, about one mile from Hustonville, Lincoln county, Ky., and the same distance from the shipping point on the Cincinnati Southern Railroad. It is all level, well watered, and the soil is rich and is practically virgin soil. There is a large dwelling on the land, five good stock barns, all necessary outbuildings, and it is well fenced and divided into the most desirable farms in the county and convenient to good schools, churches and a railroad station.

Mr. George Wright will show prospective purchasers over the farm, and the pedigrees of the horses can be obtained from him.

The terms will be announced on the day of sale.

No. 75, 150,000 acres of cotton land in Mississippi. There is no section of country which offers so many opportunities for profitable investment as the Mississippi Delta which is now being described as "Prosperity Valley." The timber is becoming more valuable all the time for the reason that lumber people from the North (where the supply of timber is fast diminishing, are constantly increasing their purchases of timber lands in the South. When the timber is removed the land is unequipped for agricultural purposes. It will produce a bale of cotton to the acre or will grow any other kind of crop raised in the temperate zone. The soil needs no fertilizers and gives a yield which cannot be excelled; taxes are low, the climate is perfect and the man who buys Delta land and timber lands at present prices is making an investment that he will never regret. This land is divided into tracts ranging from one acre to the tract to 10,000 acres to the tract and prices from $8 per acre to $10 per acre, according to location, etc. We are authorized by the company who owns these lands to state that as other parties are considering the purchase of these lands that we offer these tracts subject to prior sale, withdrawal from market or change of price without notice. However, when notified, they will hold any tract out of market long enough for the purchaser to make an investigation. About 12,000 acres of this land has been sold by the company since we received this option. For further particulars call at our office.

No. 138—230 acre farm ¼ mile of Crab Orchard, Ky. Brick dwelling 8 rooms, two tenant houses, barn, well and spring near dwelling. Farm in high state of cultivation, 150 acres river bottom land, good fencing, fruit, etc. Price $40.00 an acre.

MR. J. COULTER WHITE and family, who have been living in the Turnersville section, have moved to Liberty.

THE Thursday Afternoon Club will meet with Miss Nannie Woods Engleman next Wednesday afternoon, 23d.

MR. THOMAS H. SMILEY, Lexington, was one of the many Lexington horse buyers who attended the Dunn & Beazley Combination Sale.

We were in error last issue. Mr. L. Bowman Owens is working in the Peoples Bank at Hustonville and not in the McKinney Deposit Bank, as stated.

GEN. W. H. GENTRY, of Lexington, who came over to the horse sale and bought a handsome pair of mares for $800, was a caller at this office yesterday.

MR. HAYNES SMITH, who has been making Lincoln county his home for some time, returned to Floyd, Texas, this week, much to the regret of his legion of friends here.

MCKENZIE BROWN, of Mt. Vernon, was here Wednesday returning from Lancaster, where he bought of Dr. J. B. Kinnaird the printing plant the doctor bought at auction here. Mr. Brown will issue a paper at Williamsburg.

MISS NEVA WILLIAMS, of Harrodsburg, the accomplished authoress of the play, "The Good Samaritan," is here rehearsing those Stanford people who will take part in the performance at Walton's Opera House next Thursday night, 24th.

MRS. T. S. WEBB, JR., of Knoxville, Tenn., arrived yesterday to spend a few weeks with her parents, Judge and Mrs. M. C. Sausley. She was accompanied by her little son, Rowan Webb, who had to be taken from school on account of throat trouble.

MR. A. N. TAYLOR, formerly of Casey, but now a prosperous citizen of Augusta, Kansas, in remitting for his I. J. writes: "Kansas is a great State and is rapidly coming to the front in point of agriculture, stock raising and feeding. I have embarked in the cattle feeding business and like it very much. This, Butler county, is the banner feeding county in the State."

MR. ROBERT LEE WARNER and his handsome bride arrived yesterday from Anderson, Ind. They were met at the depot by a large number of friends who gave them a hearty reception. They drove at once to Dr. W. B. O'Bannon's, where an elegant repast was enjoyed. Mrs. Warner is a pretty brunette, graceful and stylish and an exceedingly pleasant lady. We congratulate Mr. Warner on the jewel he has won.

DRAMATIC READING.—Miss Susan Porter Yates, director of expression in Madison Institute, will give a recital at the Graded School Auditorium Friday, Feb. 1, for the benefit of the school library. Miss Yates comes highly recommended as an entertainer.

It is a high privilege to sell clothing of a character that commands the patronage of men who never before gave even a thought to ready-to-wear garments. Hart, Schaffner & Marx's all wool clothing is a magnet that draws trade our way. Cummins & McClary.

MRS. F. A. WARNER, whose home is at 1,700 Frankfort Avenue, Louisville, writes us that she has a lot of sea moss, sea shells and sea beans that she will send to INTERIOR JOURNAL readers if they will send her five one cent stamps for postage. Mrs. Warner is going to leave Louisville and had rather dispose of her sea shells, etc., this way than move them.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The case of the Central Kentucky Real Estate Exchange & Title Co. against J. T. Bingham, for commission for selling his farm, on trial when our Tuesday's paper was printed, resulted in a verdict for the defendant. The case of the Commonwealth versus G. A. Pleasants, on a paternity charge, now has the attention of the court. Much interest is manifested in this case and it is being stubbornly fought by Judge M. C. Sausley and Hon. P. M. McRoberts for the defendant and Hon. Harvey Helm for the plaintiff.

THE GOOD SAMARITAN.—On Thursday evening, Jan. 24, the people of Stanford and vicinity have a treat in store for them in "The Good Samaritan," a beautiful little drama in three acts, which will be given by home talent under the direction of Miss Neva Williams, of Harrodsburg, the writer of the play. It is given by Stanford Lodge No. 156 I. O. O. F., and their gorgeous regalia will be used in the costuming. The play is a dramatization of the beautiful parable, which is one of the principle teachings of odd fellowship. The cast includes about 30 people.

A VERY pleasing entertainment indeed was the recital given at Walton's Opera House Wednesday evening by Mrs. Annie R. Rentz, reader, and Mrs. Nell DeMarque Gibbs, pianist. Both are exceptionally good in their lines and every minute of their performance of one and one-half hours was heartily enjoyed. Unfortunately the weather was very inclement and the audience was not as large as it should have been or as it would have been had the elements behaved better. A small sum of money was raised, however, which will go toward wiping out the debt against the Crab Orchard Christian church. Mesdames Rentz and Gibbs and J. B. Willis are under obligations to Mr. A. D. Slate, the clever representative of the Montenegro-Riehm Co., of Lexington, for the use, free of charge, of one of their exquisite upright pianos. Mrs. J. B. Willis, who manages the delightful recital, took the ladies to Hustonville last night, where a good audience greeted them. They will "hold the boards" at Lancaster to-night, where they should have a crowded house.

SHERIFF HILL contributes the first chapter of a serial story this issue. It appears on our fourth page. Read it and be your own judge of Mr. Hill as an author.

LOST, small black pocket book or purse, between homes of Messrs. Geo. D. Wearen and J. W. Alcorn. Contained small amount of money. Liberal reward. This office.

KICKED.—Mr. W. Gill Cowan, of Hustonville, was kicked on the right leg by a vicious horse at the Dunn & Beazley Combination Sale Wednesday afternoon and painfully hurt. No bones were broken, we are glad to say.

YOU'LL regret it if you miss Dr. A. S. Moffett's address in celebration of Gen. Robert E. Lee's 100th birthday at Walton's Opera House at 10:30 tomorrow, Saturday A. M. The U. D. C. Society, of this place, cordially extends an invitation for you to hear him.

MR. A. C. SINE, of this place, has contracted to build for the Kentucky Supply Co., Danville, three residences and a big barn in that city. Messrs. F. Reid and H. C. Bright, of the above company, saw Hon. P. M. McRoberts' pretty home and decided to build several like it.

HOUSES FOR RENT.—I desire to rent for the year 1907 the Helm residence on Danville Avenue. There are five acres of land in the lot and the home is a very desirable one. Also the brick cottage on Somerset pike now occupied by George T. Wood. H. Helm, Stanford, Ky.

MR. ELBERT HARPER and Capt. Thomas, of Salsbury, N. C., are here attending the Dunn & Beazley Combination Sale. Mr. Harper, who is an old Lincoln county boy, is extensively engaged in his adopted home. He and his brother, Mr. James P. Harper, run an immense livery stable and besides they are doing the team work on the Whitney Canal, to be five miles in length and to run parallel with the Yaden river. They now have 125 mules at work there and have had as many as 250. These gentlemen have been at work on this canal for over two years and it will take another year or so to complete the job. Between 500 and 1,000 men work daily on the immense undertaking.

A GLITTERING SUCCESS.—The Combination Sale of stallions, geldings, mares, ponies, jacks, jennets and mules held here Wednesday and yesterday by Messrs. A. C. Dunn and James R. Beazley was a success in all the word implies. Buyers were here from many States and they did some spirited bidding for the 200 or more magnificent specimens of the equine family that went under the hammer. Prices ranged from $125 to $1,250. This gives little idea of the class of animals that changed hands, but a better idea can be formed when it is told that many good, serviceable gentlemen's horses sold at $300 to $500, stallions $500 to $1,250, jacks $300 to $465. We congratulate the promoters on the success of their first effort and hope they will see their way clear to have these sales semi-annually or at least once a year. Having so clearly demonstrated the fact that a combination sale can be held successfully in Stanford, we presume they will have many more. Capt. English of Danville, did the auctioneering, with the assistance now and then of Col. Ike Dunn, of the same city. Both did good work. As far as we were able to learn both buyers and sellers were more than satisfied with the sale and many of them expressed their hearty approval of the splendid manner in which it was conducted.

CASH, NO DISCOUNT.—It is with pleasure that we accept draft for $1,000, delivered by Jesse D. Wearen, the insurance man, Stanford, Ky., for his portion of our loss of Dec. 20, lost on merchandise. For prompt and liberal settlement of losses we commend to property owners The Queen Insurance Co. of America, represented by Jesse D. Wearen, Stanford, Ky. Settlement cash, no discount. The Reynolds Co., Waynesburg, Ky., Jan. 7, 1907.

CORNS CURED.—Corn Exit will positively remove corns in four days. The treatment is simple and pleasant and we absolutely guarantee to refund the money to each and every customer whose corns are not promptly removed with entire satisfaction. A bottle of this great preparation only costs 15 cents and nothing if a perfect cure is not speedily effected. G. L. Penny, druggist, Stanford, Ky.

Warehouse receipts are taxable property, the situs being the domicile of the owner, under a decision handed down by the Court of Appeals in a case appealed from Jefferson county. The court held that the owner must pay taxes on the receipts even though the property may be in warehouses located in Germany.

How to Cure Chills.

"To enjoy freedom from chills," writes John Kemp, East Otisfield, Me., "I apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Have also used it for salt rheum with excellent results." Guaranteed to cure fever sores, indolent ulcers, piles, burns, wounds, frost bites and skin diseases 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

Kingston, Jamaica, was struck by an earthquake Monday afternoon. All the houses within a radius of 10 miles were damaged and almost every house in the city was destroyed. Fire broke out after the earthquake and completed the work of destruction. The business section of Kingston is a heap of smoldering ashes. The killed number about 400 and thousands were injured.

Cut this out and take it to the Stanford Drug Co., and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. These tablets are far superior to pills, being easier to take and more pleasant in effect. They correct disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels.
